Re: United States v. Blackledge, et al., 13 Cr. 414 (SHS)

Dear Judge Stein:

We write on behalf of Mr. Kwame Anderson, a defendant in the above-captioned matter. On July 24, 2023, Your Honor granted Mr. Anderson's request for bail pursuant to several conditions, including a $100,000 personal recognizance bond to be secured by three financially responsible persons (the "co-signers") within 72 hours of his release. The government interviewed and approved Mr. Anderson's three proposed co-signers, and all three have signed Mr. Anderson's bond. In addition, two of the co-signers have sworn to the bond. The third co-signer, however, was not able to connect with the Court today in order to swear to the bond. Accordingly, we respectfully request a 24-hour extension for the third co-signer to swear to the bond. We have conferred with AUSA Katherine Cheng who informed us that the government consents to this request.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Daniel P. Gordon
